

Use good speech.
Use good sentence structure.
Try to complete 3 activities per week.

May/June

2012

Each time you practice, color in the activity square.

Name a month.
Tell what you like best about this month.

Name an animal with your sound.
Draw and talk about it.

Name a holiday with your sound.
How do you celebrate it?

At 4:00, tell mom what you would like for dinner. Use your best speech.

Discuss fire safety rules. Use your best speech.

Fold towels for mom. Say a word with your sound for each towel you fold.

Tell about a t.v. show that you watched. Use your best speech.

Give directions for playing your favorite game. Use your best speech.

Look up 3 words that have your sound in the dictionary. Discuss their meaning.

Parent-read a story

Child-retell the story.

Listen for your speech sound while you are listening to your favorite song.

Name 3 words that have your sound in the middle.

Create a yummy salad. Tell how to make it. Use your good speech.

Sequence steps to make an icecream float. Use your good speech.

Name things that hurt our environment besides litter. Use your good speech.

Would you rather have a tree or a swimming pool in your backyard? Why?

Name 3 words that have your sound at the end.

Would you rather work in a flower shop or on a farm? Why? Use your good speech.

Use your best speech while you read a book aloud to a parent.

Name 3 ways to keep your body healthy. Use your best speech.